(54) Title: COMPOSITIONS AND METHODS FOR BIOFERMENTATION OF OIL-CONTAINING FEEDSTOCKS

(57) Abstract: The present invention provides compositions and methods for the use of oil-containing materials as feedstocks for the production of bioproducts by biofermentation. In one preferred embodiment, surfactants are not used in compositions and the methods of the invention. In one preferred embodiment the oil-containing feedstocks are the by-products of other industrial processes including microbial, plant and animal oil processing.
