

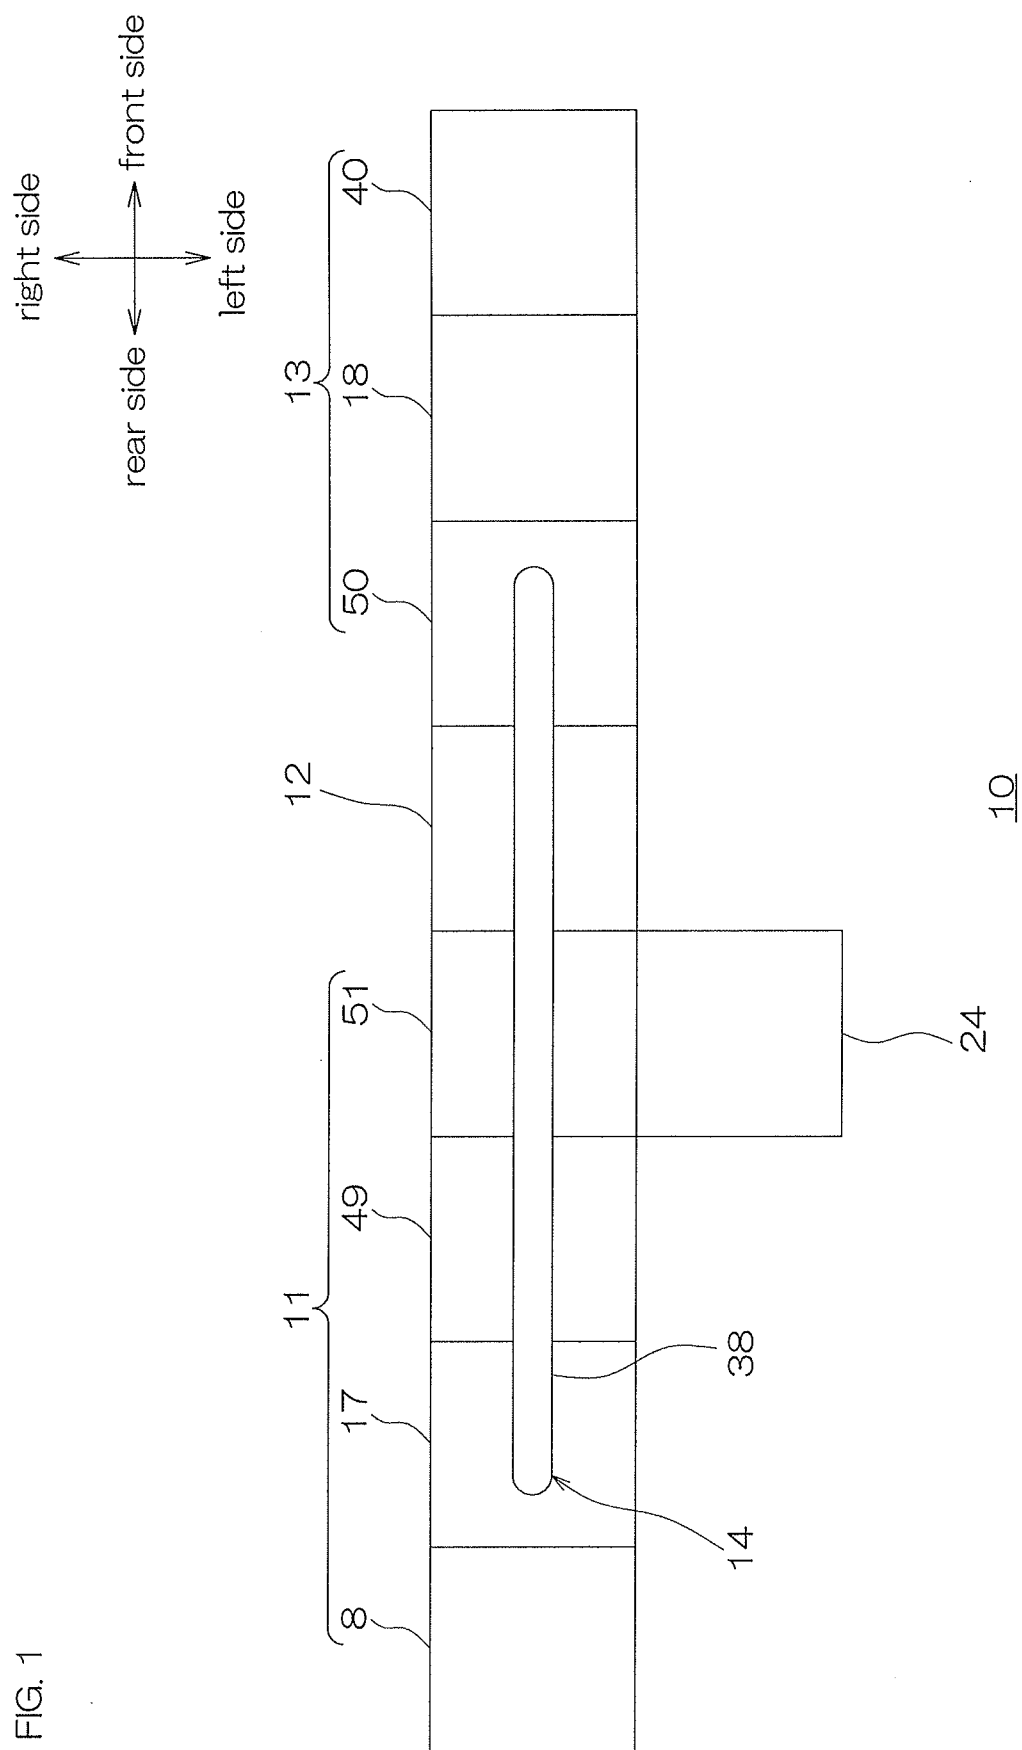

FIG. 1

A diagram of a four-way intersection. A vertical line and a horizontal line intersect at a central point. Four arrows point outwards from the center along the lines. The labels are positioned around the intersection: 'upper side' at the top, 'lower side' at the bottom, 'rear side' on the left, and 'front side' on the right.

FIG. 3

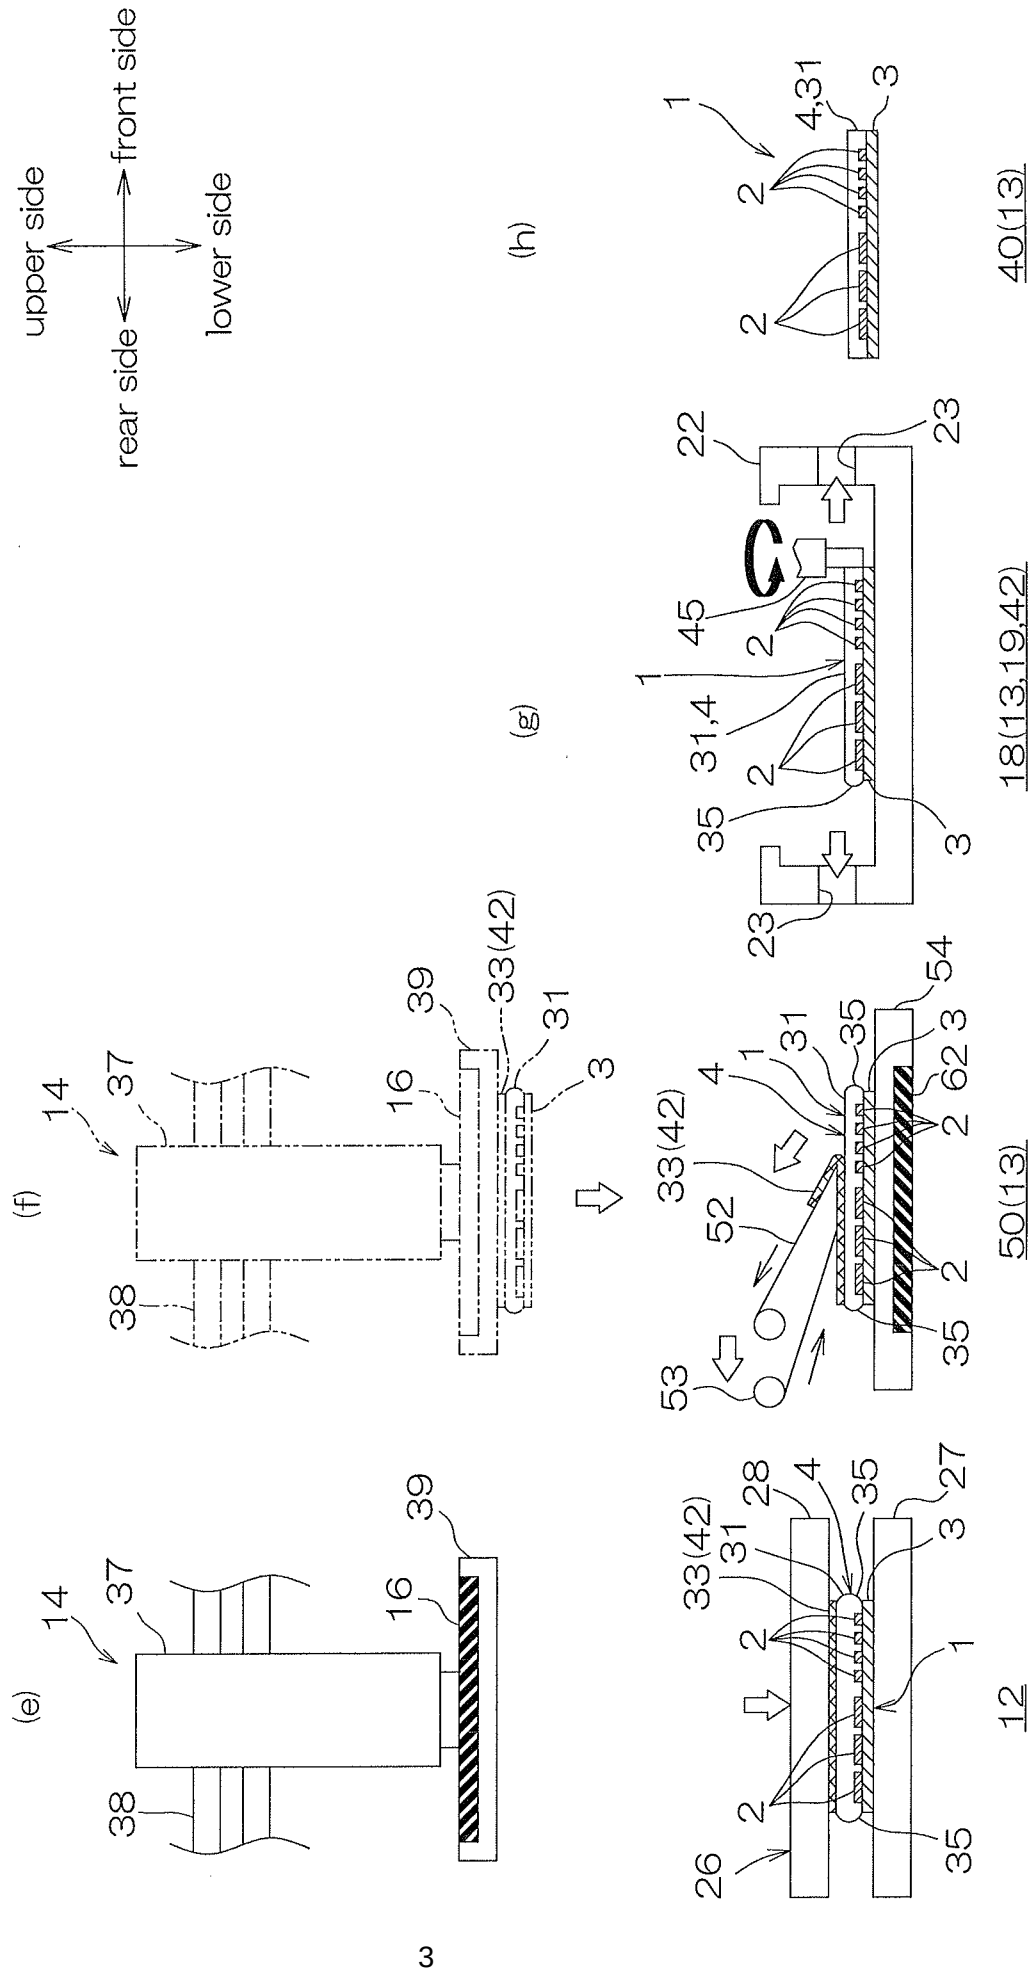

FIG. 4

