

Abstract

The invention relates to thermoset fibrous mouldings consisting of several layers of fibres comprising at least two different thermosetting binders. The internal layers of fibres preferably contain phenolic resin as a binder, whereas the upper and lower layers on the outside preferably contain epoxy resin as a binder.

This Sheet Has Been Replaced

Certified faithful translation prepared by
ALPNET SINGAPORE PTE LTD

.....
JUNE RAHMAN
Account Manager