(54) Title: A CLEANING SOLUTION AND METHOD
(57) Abstract A cleaning solution formulation consisting of sodium bicarbonate, sodium carbonate and trisodium phosphate in aqueous solution is presented. Methods of the present invention provide for cleaning a wide variety of surfaces and materials with the cleaning solution of the present invention. In addition, the cleaning solution of the present invention also provides for the elimination or reduction of malodors and prevents the growth of various micro-organisms by and through its action to form a thin encapsulating film.
