CLAIMS:

1. A method of treating a disease or condition in a human, comprising administering not more than 500mg of an oligomeric compound to the human during a dosing period, wherein the oligomeric compound is ISIS 681257.