

12. The computer-implemented method of claim 10, wherein the at least one policy regarding the compliance rule includes a first policy pertaining to a first satellite location regarding the compliance rule and a second policy pertaining to a second satellite location regarding the compliance rule, wherein the first policy and the second policy differ.

13. The computer-implemented method of claim 10, further comprising a step of creating the compliance document by the one or more processors within the computer system of the first entity, the computer system being configured to maintain that compliance document away from external websites.

14. The computer-implemented method of claim 10, wherein the compliance document is a compliance manual.

15. The computer-implemented method of claim 1, wherein the metadata identifying the section of the compliance document in which the compliance rule is referenced is human-readable metadata.