CLAIMS

[Claim 1]

A golf cart comprising:

a frame portion;

a seating portion supported by the frame portion;

a pair of front wheels at a more forward position than the seating portion;

a pair of front tires attached to the pair of front wheels;

a pair of rear wheels at a more rearward position than the seating portion;

a pair of rear tires attached to the pair of rear wheels;

a step supported by the frame portion and extending to a more rearward position than the pair of rear tires;

a bed capable of supporting a bottom portion of a golf bag, at least part of the bed being at a more rearward position than the seating portion; and a support portion capable of supporting an upper region of the golf bag at a position higher than the bed; wherein the bed is at a position which is lower than a tangential line of each rear tire drawn to pass above a rotational center of relevant rear wheel while passing a rear end of the seating portion, and more forward than each rotational center, in a side view; and the entire support portion is at a position more rearward than a rear end of the bed and more forward than rear ends of the pair of rear tires.

[Claim 2]

The golf cart according to Claim 1, wherein the bed has a fore end at a more forward position than the rear end of the seating portion.

[Claim 3]

The golf cart according to Claim 1 or 2, wherein the step is smaller in terms of a dimension in a width direction of the golf cart than a distance between outer ends of the pair of rear tires, and greater than a distance between inner ends of the pair of rear tires.

[Claim 4]

The golf cart according to one of Claims 1 through 3, further comprising a roof portion covering above the seating portion, a pillar supported by the frame portion and supporting the roof portion, and a grab handle connected to the pillar via the support portion.

[Claim 5]

The golf cart according to Claim 4, wherein the roof portion does not overlap a rear end of the support portion in a plan view.

[Claim 6]

The golf cart according to one of Claims 1 through 5, wherein the bed faces obliquely rearward and upward.

[Claim 7]

The golf cart according to one of Claims 1 through 6, wherein the bed is disposed in front of each of the pair of rear tires.
