

ABSTRACT

The present invention relates to an ^{18}F -labelled compound, and a use thereof. The compound selectively
5 binds to a prostate-specific membrane antigen (PSMA), and enables the acquisition of clear prostate cancer images in a short time when used in positron emission tomography (PET).