

A B S T R A C T

A SUPPORT INSTALLED AT SEA AND FITTED WITH EXTERNAL CONTAINERS

5

The present invention provides a support (1) installed at sea in grounded or floating manner, the support including both a processor installation (1b) on its deck (1a) for processing a first liquid (2a) that is dangerous and/or corrosive, preferably liquefied natural gas (LNG), and also at least one tank (2) for storing said first liquid (2a), preferably an LNG tank incorporated within the hull (1g) of said support under said deck (1a) the support being characterized in that it includes at least one container (3) situated outside said support and situated at least in part, and preferably completely, below the deck (1a) of said support on which said installation is supported, said container being fastened to said support, preferably in reversible manner (5), said deck including or supporting first transfer means (4) suitable for transferring towards said container any leakage liquid (2a') flowing from at least a portion of said installation, in particular in the event of a leak.

10

15

20