(54) Title: A SYSTEM OF TRADEMARK RISK MANAGEMENT AND METHOD THEREOF

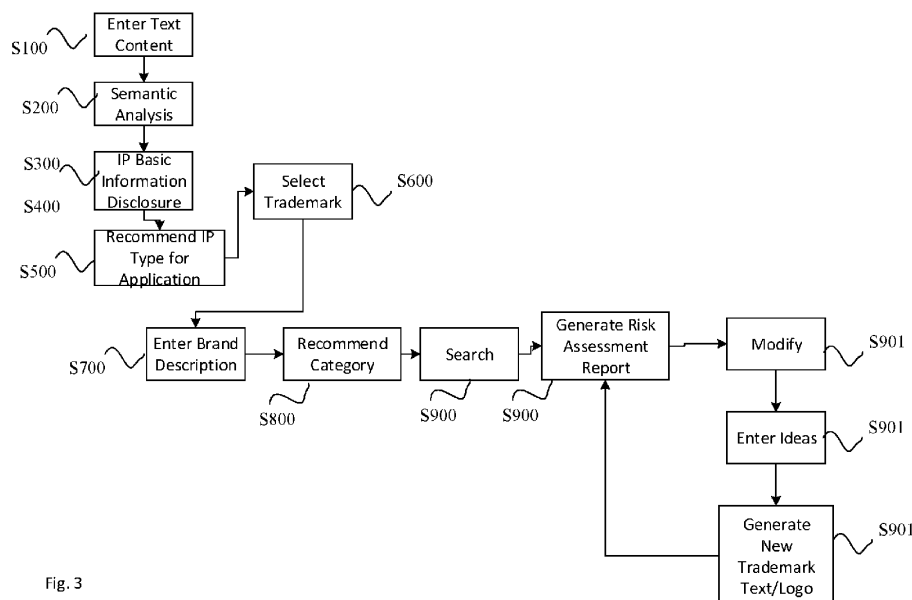

Fig. 3

(57) Abstract: The present invention provides a trademark risk management system and method, which is implemented by providing a user-operated electronic device, wherein the electronic device comprises a processor and a network interface controller, a server comprises an application, and the processor connects to the server through the network interface controller to execute the application for the purpose of category recommendation and risk management, especially for the regeneration of text or graphics.
