(54) Title: SIMIAN ADENOVIRUS AND METHODS OF USE

Figure 2A

(57) Abstract: The invention provides methods for propagating a monkey adenovirus in a cell including a human cell, comprising one or more gene products isolated from a human adenovirus. Also provided are methods for propagating wherein the monkey adenovirus comprises a nucleic acid sequence encoding a human adenovirus gene product. The invention further provides a monkey adenovirus, including a replication-deficient monkey adenovirus, obtained by such propagation methods.
