ABSTRACT

"A DOWNHOLE CENTRALISER"

A downhole centraliser arranged to receive a downhole tubular has a tubular body with opposed ends and is formed of plastics material. A respective end ring is mounted in the or each opposed end and is formed of a plastics material having a Youngs Moldulus no greater than that of the tubular body.

Figure 1