

162162

G00001

The abstract:

The safety linkage is a device that helps a person in drying laundry outside the high-rise building with a traditional bamboo stick. It greatly reduces the body strain of the person during the lifting process and also eliminates water trapping in the existing laundry pipe pre-casted outside the high-rise building.

Note: See attached drawing SL-1 assembly user guide pages 1 & 2