- (54) Title: OPERATION SPEED AS A DYNAMIC LEVEL LINE

Figure 4

- (57) Abstract: In one embodiment, a performance metric tracker shows an operation performance metric in context with an operation performance history to a user. The performance metric tracker tracks a current operation performance metric of the data resource operation. The performance metric tracker maintains an operation performance history for a data resource operation. The performance metric tracker presents the current operation performance metric in relation to the operation performance history to a user, whereby the current performance metric is displayed as a dynamic level line.
