

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

To provide an exterior wall repair device capable of performing repair work after an exterior wall of a building is diagnosed, by remote control without erecting scaffolding around the building. An exterior wall repair device A includes a travel path body 4, a carriage 1 having a traveling part capable of traveling on the travel path body 4 and winch devices, a repair device main body 2 having a gondola 20 suspended and moved up and down by the winch devices, a manipulator 21 arranged in the gondola 20 and performing repair work, a shooting part capable of shooting images of the state of working by the manipulator 21, a vacuum device 24 for detachably fixing the gondola 20 to an exterior wall surface, and a belt having both end portions fixed to attaching/detaching means of the fixing device and wound around a drive part of the manipulator 21, and a remote control part 3 having a monitor 32 on which an operator can see an image from the shooting part and operation gloves 31 operated by the operator and capable of remotely operating the manipulator 21 in synchronization with the manipulator 21.

(FIG. 1)