- Group name [521]: A text input field containing "Payment group 1".
- Group type [522]: Two radio button options:
 - ☒ Only one split payment
This is one-time group.
Once paid, it will be automatically deleted.
 - ☐ Continue to split payment
This is multi-time group.
It will continue to remain until delete it.
- Participant list [523]: A list of participants, each with a placeholder icon and a name:
 - Participant A (me)
 - Participant B (me)
 - Participant C (me)
- Check: A large button at the bottom of the form.

Annotations include a squiggly line with an arrow pointing to the "Participant list" section, a bracket labeled "505" spanning the participant list and the "Check" button, and a callout box labeled "A" pointing to the "Check" button. The entire screen is labeled "[550]" at the bottom.
