

Abstract

A multi filament tuft used in brush heads, especially dental brushes, where a brush head requires a cleaning capability of filaments of differing sizes on the same tuft. A TUFT which comprises of a base anchor portion, and a filament portion. Where the filament used is not of one type of material size or grade; but of two(2) or more. A Tuft for Dental Brush substantially as described in conjunction with the drawings.

162162

G00001