

MULTI-AXIS LENS DESIGN FOR ASTIGMATISM

ABSTRACT

A toric contact lens utilizes concentric annual rings, a continually varying lens design as a function of distance from the lens center or any other function to create a range of cylinder axis zones on a single lens.

Fig. 1