(54) Title: SELF-SERVICE AUTHENTICATED PRINTING

FIG. 1

100

(57) Abstract: A computer-implemented method to enable self-service printing with authentication includes receiving, by a server, a print-request to print a document associated with an account, the print-request received from a computing device. The method further includes adding, by the server, a print job for the document in a print queue associated with the account. The method further includes receiving, by the server, a second request to initiate printing the document associated with the account, the second request received from a printer. The method further includes releasing, by the server, the print queue associated with the account to cause the printer to print the document, the releasing being responsive to the second request being authenticated.
