(54) Title: ENFORCING POLICY FOR ENERGY CONSUMPTION FOR A SERVICE IN A WIRELESS COMMUNICATION SYSTEM

Fig. 6

(57) Abstract: Various aspects of the present disclosure relate to a method in a network entity, comprising: receiving, from a first network entity of a wireless communication system, one or more first parameters comprising energy-related restriction information for session management of a data session; determining, based at least partly on the one or more first parameters, one or more second parameters comprising energy-related restriction information for session management of the data session for enforcement in an access network (AN) of the wireless communication system; and transmitting, to a second network entity of the wireless communication system, the one or more second parameters for enforcement in the AN.
