(54) Title: A METHOD AND APPARATUS FOR A SINGLE-WORD ALIGNMENT IN A PAGE-READ OPERATION

(57) Abstract

A method and apparatus for performing non-N-word aligned burst cycles, the method comprising the steps of: receiving a first non-N-word-aligned burst cycle request; loading a first portion of a first N-word aligned page and a first portion of a second N-word aligned page into a first buffer; and accessing the first buffer to generate a first N-word burst cycle.
