(54) Title: A PRESSURE SENSING DEVICE AND RELATED METHODS

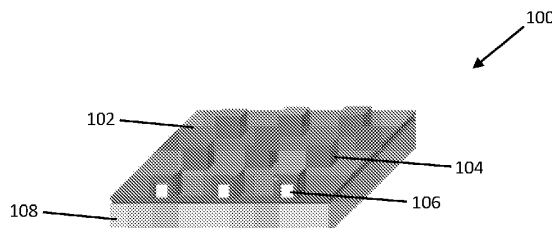

FIG. 1

(57) Abstract: There is provided a pressure sensing device and related methods, the pressure sensing device comprising, a plurality of chambers for storing one or more visual indicators, wherein the plurality of chambers are configured to release the one or more visual indicators when a pressure exerted on the plurality of chambers exceeds one or more pressure thresholds. The plurality of chambers can be microchambers. The device may be used in conjunction with a bandaging system to indicate the pressure applied onto a site of treatment.
