

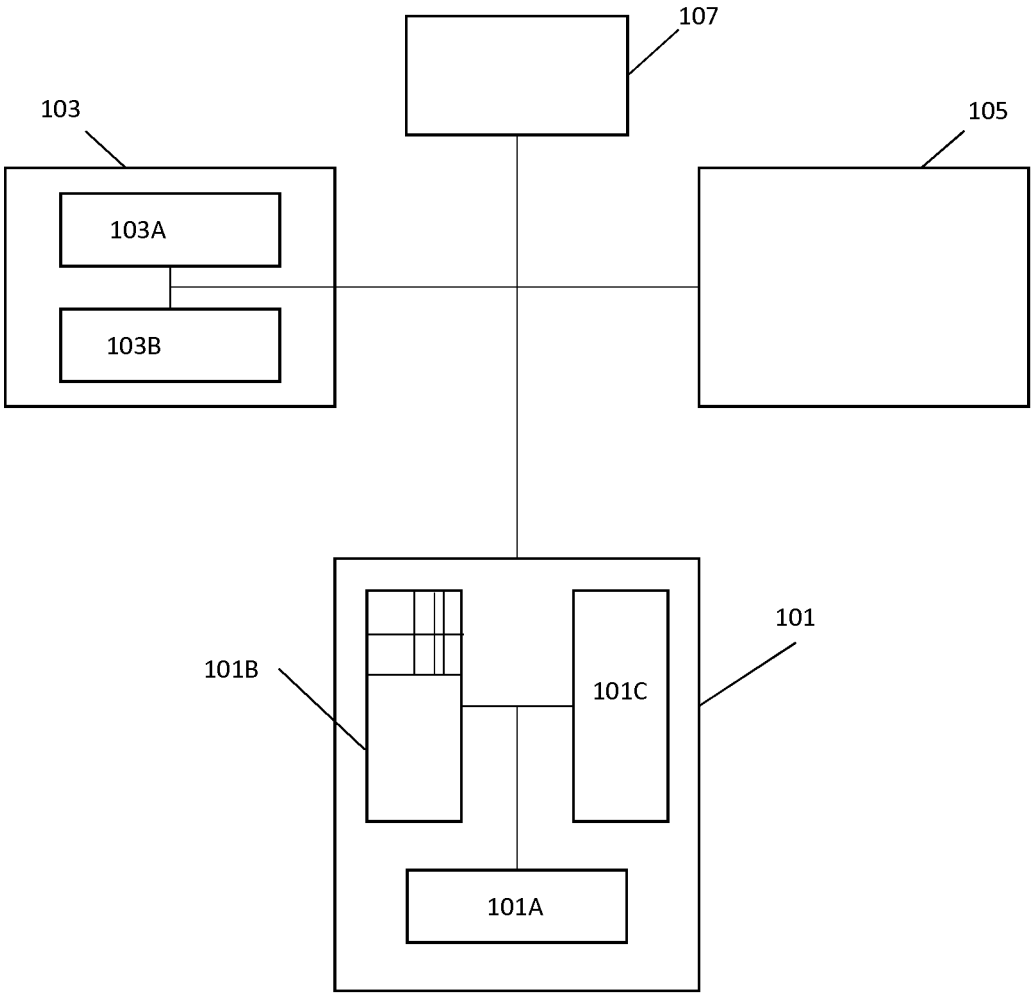

Figure 1

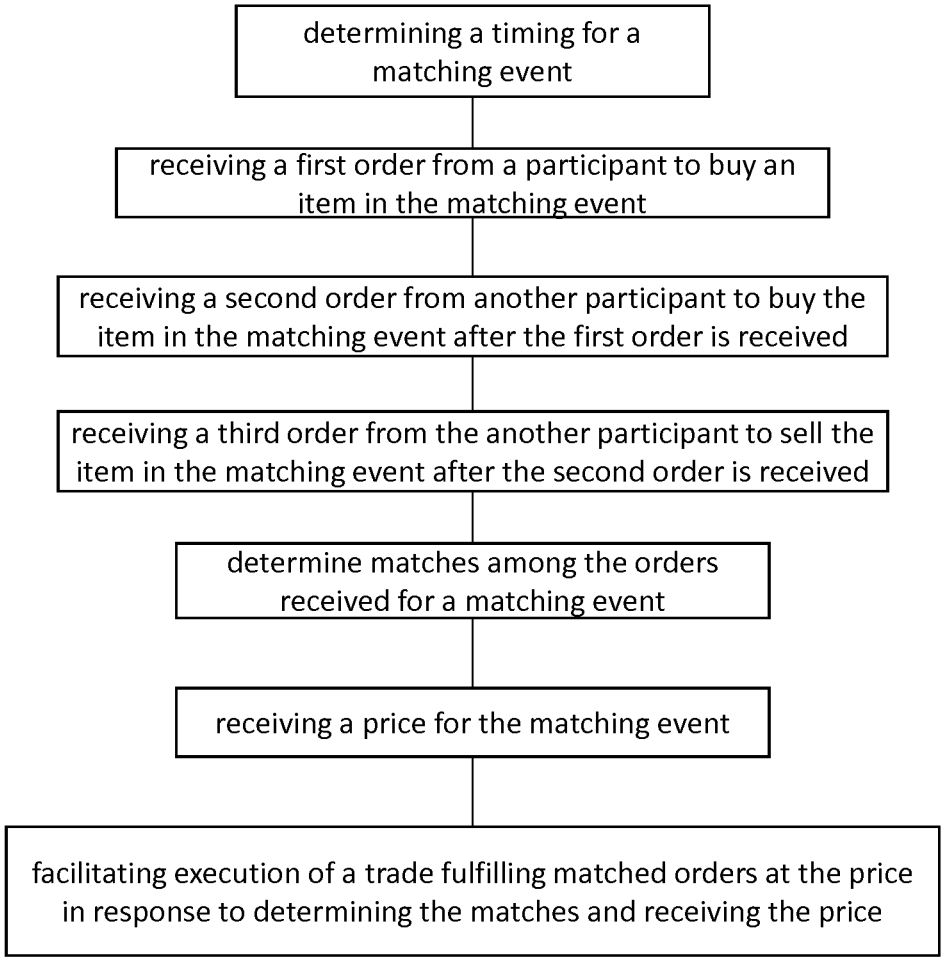

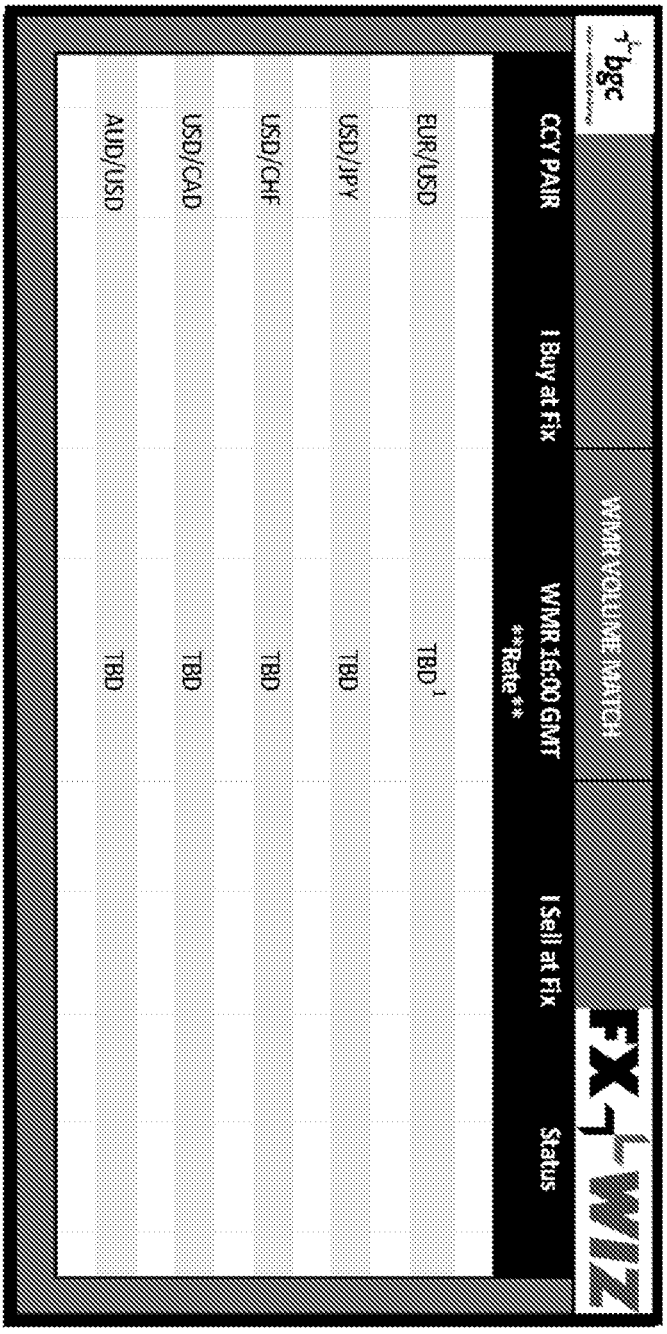

determining a timing for a matching event receiving a first order from a participant to buy an item in the matching event receiving a second order from another participant to buy the item in the matching event after the first order is received receiving a third order from the another participant to sell the item in the matching event after the second order is received determine matches among the orders received for a matching event receiving a price for the matching event facilitating execution of a trade fulfilling matched orders at the price in response to determining the matches and receiving the price

Figure 2

[1] The actual WMR Fixing rate is not published until approximated 2 minutes after the fixing time. "TBD" will be replaced by the actual rate as soon as it is published by the WM Company

Figure 3