

This Sheet Has Been Replaced

ABSTRACT

A Golf Club Head

A golf club head (14) comprising a shell (16) having toe (32) and heel (30) portions; a front wall (28) defining a forward facing ball-striking face; and top (24) and bottom walls, the bottom wall being metallic and having at least one local zone (300) of relatively greater thickness, remaining extent of the bottom wall having thickness substantially less than the local zone (300) of relatively greater thickness.