

VAPOR LUBRICATION OF FRACTIONATED LUBRICANT ON THIN FILM DISCS

ABSTRACT

Lubricated magnetic recording discs are provided by vapor deposition of narrow molecular weight fractions of a terminally functionalized perfluoropolyether. The coatings are found to provide stable lubrication over extended periods of time in CSS cycles.

4-20000000