(54) Title: MANAGING DISPLAY OF DIALOGS IN COMPUTING DEVICES BASED ON DEVICE PROXIMITY

(57) Abstract: A method in a user computing device for presenting dialogs in a set of computing devices including the user computing device. Responsive to a request to present a dialog, computing devices within the set of computing devices in a selected proximity of the user computing device are identified to form a set of proximate computing devices. The dialog is presented on only one of the user computer device and the set of proximate computing devices based on a policy.
