

(S7) Abstract: A wireless system performs interworking of a combined circuit switched (CS) session and an IP multimedia core network subsystem (IMS) session between two users having different content capabilities through an interworking circuit switched (CS) and IMS function (IMS CS IWF). Combinational services implementation for a user supporting IMS and CS and another user supporting only IMS.