(54) Title: METHODS OF MANUFACTURING CORE-SHELL MICROPARTICLES, AND MICROPARTICLES FORMED THEREOF

(57) Abstract: Methods of manufacturing core-shell microparticles having a core comprising a hydrogel material and a shell comprising a hydrophobic polymer immiscible with the hydrogel material are presented. Core-shell microparticles having a core comprising a hydrogel material and a shell comprising a hydrophobic polymer immiscible with the hydrogel material, as well as core-shell microparticles manufactured using the methods, and pharmaceutical compositions comprising the core-shell microparticles are also presented.
