

ABSTRACT

Provided is a mold for imprint having a leveling agent layer in which a desired uneven pattern is formed on an outermost surface by embedding unevenness on a main surface of a base body by coting this portion with a leveling agent.

Figure 2