

Abstract

Glycosylated Polypeptide and Drug Composition Containing said Polypeptide

[Problem] To provide a glycosylated polypeptide having an affinity to somatostatin receptors, and, compared to somatostatins, having improved in-blood stability.
[Solution] The glycosylated polypeptide is characterized by at least one amino acid in a somatostatin or an analogue thereof being replaced with a glycosylated amino acid.

Figure for publication: None