

ABSTRACT

The present invention is related to the fusion proteins containing a half-life extension protein, a linker, and a GDF15 protein which function as GDF15 agonists. These GDF15 agonists may be useful in the treatment of obesity, reduction of body weight, decrease in food intake, or decrease of appetite.

Figure 1A