SIGNALING CHANGE IN OUTPUT LAYER SETS

Abstract

A system for decoding a video bitstream includes receiving a bitstream and a plurality of enhancement bitstreams together with receiving a video parameter set and a video parameter set extension. The system also receives an output layer set change message including information indicating a change in at least one output layer set.

FIG. 36