Declaration of inability to prepare the international search report

(translation)

In accordance with Art. 5 Patent Cooperation Treaty (PCT) the description must disclose the invention sufficiently clear and complete for the invention to be carried out by a person skilled in the art.

In accordance with Article 6 of the PCT Claims must be clear and precise. They must be fully supported by the description. The claimed invention does not meet the above requirements for the following reasons.

The claimed invention is based on the idea of getting rid of harmful objects elements, restoration of the natural state of an object living or inanimate nature using, in particular bio-resonance therapy, as well as on the idea of the existence of "energy-field". These ideas have not received confirmation of the scientific community and are outside of science-based knowledge.

The application materials are not disclosed themselves harmful elements from which it is proposed to deliver the object, does not disclose specific actions at the specified redemption, the decisions taken and the data necessary for making these decisions in identifying and getting rid of harmful elements, etc. Also not specifically disclosed the claimed system of infected objects animate and inanimate nature.

In the description there is no theoretical and experimental studies of existence "energy- information field " and "information field" of human and the possibility of its registration. Besides, does not disclose the physical characteristics of these fields and how this field is manifested as a physical phenomenon. Not disclosed how can be measured characteristic of such a field, to assert the reality of existence.

The description is not given any concrete example of embodiment of the claimed invention. Accordingly, it is not possible to understand from any harmful elements is expected to deliver the said object by what actions and what specific tools.

Thus the description have not sufficient information to the skilled in this field specialist carry out the claimed invention.