

Elizabeth the Second by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland and of Her other Realms and Territories Queen, Head of the Commonwealth, Defender of the Faith To all to whom these presents shall come greeting:

WHEREAS Maruzen Kabushiki Kaisha, a corporation of Japan, of No. 6, 2-chome, Shimbashi-dori, Chuo-ku, Tokyo, Japan

(hereinafter referred to as the said applicants) have prayed that a patent may be granted unto them for the sole use and advantage of an invention for A felt pointed writing device

AND WHEREAS the said applicants (hereinafter together with their successors, and assigns, or any of them referred to as the patentees) have declared that there is no lawful ground of objection to the grant of a patent unto them:

AND WHEREAS the complete specification has particularly described the invention:

AND WHEREAS We, being willing to encourage all inventions which may be for the public good, are graciously pleased to condescend to their request:

KNOW YE, THEREFORE, that We, of our especial grace, certain knowledge, and mere motion do by these presents, for Us, our heirs and successors, give and grant unto the said patentees our especial licence, full power, sole privilege, and authority, that the said patentees by themselves, their agents, or licensees, and no others, may subject to the conditions and provisions prescribed by any statute or order for the time being in force at all times hereafter during the term of years herein mentioned, make, use, exercise and vend the said invention within our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, and the Isle of Man, and that the said patentees shall have and enjoy the whole profit and advantage from time to time accruing by reason of the said invention during the term of sixteen years from the date hereunder written of these presents: AND to the end that the said patentees may have and enjoy the sole use and exercise and the full benefit of the said invention, We do by these presents for Us, our heirs and successors, strictly command all our subjects whatsoever within our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, and the Isle of Man, that they do not at any time during the continuance of the said term either directly or indirectly make use of or put in practice the said invention, nor in anywise imitate the same, without the consent, licence or agreement of the said patentees in writing under their hands and seals, on pain of incurring such penalties as may be justly inflicted on such offenders for their contempt of this our Royal command, of being answerable to the patentees according to law for their damages thereby occasioned:

VIDED ALWAYS that these letters patent shall be revocable on any of the grounds from time to time by law provided as grounds for revoking letters patent granted by Us, and the same may be revoked and made void accordingly:

ALSO that nothing herein contained shall prevent the granting of licences in such manner and for such considerations as they may by law be granted: AND lastly, We do by these presents for Us, our heirs and successors, grant unto the said patentees that these our letters patent shall be construed in the most beneficial sense for the advantage of the said patentees.

IN WITNESS whereof We have caused these our letters to be made patent as of the twentieth day of September one thousand nine hundred and six and to be sealed.

If any person becomes entitled by assignment, transmission or other operation of law to this patent, or a part interest therein, or to any interest as mortgagee or licensee or otherwise, application must be made to the Comptroller to register such title or interest (see Section 74 of the Act). Particulars as to the manner of making such application may be obtained from the Patent Office.

METHODS OF OBTAINING STAMPED PATENTS FORMS.

Stamped forms cannot be sent by post from the Patent Office, but may be obtained:—

(1) By personal application at the Inland Revenue Office (Room 28), The Patent Office, 25, Southampton Buildings, London, W.C.2, Monday to Friday from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. (public holidays excepted).

(2) By personal application at the Inland Revenue Stamp Offices at Birmingham, Bristol, Cardiff, Edinburgh, Glasgow, Leeds, Liverpool, Manchester, Newcastle, Nottingham and Sheffield.

(3) By ordering personally from any Money Order Office in Great Britain or Northern Ireland, or by post from the Controller of Stamps, Bush House, South-West Wing, Strand, London, W.C.2. In either case, where the stamped form is due to be sent to the Patent Office by a particular date, care should be taken to place the order for it in sufficient time to enable the form to be lodged by the due date. Where a form is ordered from the Controller of Stamps, the value of the stamp must be prepaid. The remittance should be made by Postal Order, Money Order, Banker's Draft or Cheque (payable to the commissioners of Inland Revenue and crossed "Bank of England"), and must include the cost of transmitting the form to the applicant by registered post.
