

Abstract

The invention relates to the use of specific organophosphorus compounds as anti-wear agents in an oil so as to prevent and/or reduce the neurotoxicity of said oil and/or for the prophylaxis of aerotoxic syndrome in the instance of a fume event.

Abstract figure: No figure